Acknowledgements

Many individuals provided valuable feedback during the writing of Libra. We wish to thank Malou Metraux, Kristin Haywood, and David Swanger for their constructive criticisms at various stages of the manuscript. We are particularly grateful to Bernardo Taiz for thoroughly editing and critiquing the penultimate draft. Angus Murphy supplied computer expertise and Dave Bryant offered useful technical suggestions on a wide range of topics, from military hardware to world-building. We also wish to acknowledge the encouragement and support of many friends, family members, and colleagues, including Maggie Moore, Dave Maguire, Randy Skeem, Ruth Skeem, George Brown, Wendy Peer, Bonnie and George Walter, Gary Silberstein, Jean-Pierre Metraux, and Barry and Rusty Bowman. Most of all we thank Mark Shelby of AmSea Group Publishing for his initial enthusiasm and continuing faith in the book, and for the “novel” idea of combining music and story in a single package.
